

SPRING 2022

CEnSE Updates

Centre for Entrepreneurship and Spatial Economics

Activities from 1st February:

- 4th February - Meeting EFS and CEnSE: Discussion of opportunities to collaborate.
- 10th February - CEnSE meeting: follow-up, news, upcoming activities.
- 3rd March – 9th March - Professor Geoffrey Hewings was visiting.
- 4th March - CEnSE Seminar: “Exploring the structure of regional economies: adding the occupational dimension” by Professor Geoffrey Hewings
- 14th March to 18th March - Guest of profesor Almas Heshmati, Farhad Nariman was visiting.
- 14th March – CEnSE website was updated with information about seminars, new projects, visiting guests.
- CEnSE LinkedIn page was created.
- 22nd March – CEnSE Seminar: “The Silicon Valley Syndrome” with Professor Olav Sorenson from University of California, Los Angeles.
- 25th march – CEnSE Seminar: “Doing context in plant-based food category: A study of incumbents and new entrants standing out and fitting in” with Magdalena Markowska, Assistant professor, JIBS.

Upcoming activities:

- 20th April, 12:00 at conference room B5002 - CEnSE Lunch meeting
- 23rd – 25th May – Harry Garretsen and Janka Stoker will be visiting. (Here is a doodle link to book a meeting with Professor Harry G.)
- 24th May from 12.00-13:00, Room B4043 - CEnSE Seminar: “Geographical Psychology, Entrepreneurship & Regional Economics: First Results and a Research Agenda” with Professor Harry Garretsen from International Economics & Business at the University of Groningen, The Netherlands,
- 13th June, 13.00-21.00, B2044 and dinner in the Studio - CEnSE Funding Lab
- 10th to 23rd June – Alessandra Faggian, Professor of Applied Economics from Gran Sasso Science Institute, L'Aquila, Italy will be visiting.

CEnSE Members Updates:

- Johannes Hagen presented at the internal seminar series of the Swedish Tax Agency (Skatteverket). He talked about the role of nudging with insights from his article that was recently published in the Economic Journal.
- Johannes Hagen together with co-author Hannes Malmberg (University of Minnesota) had their article published in Social Policy & Administration entitled: “A cofinancing model for disability insurance and local government employers.”
- Researcher Anna Nordén and doctoral student Erwan Dujeancourt from JIBS and CEnSE have been involved in producing statistics and writing the report. They have mapped out what ownership in Sweden looks like between men and women during a marriage and what happens after a divorce. Read about the latest report from Ownershift <https://www.ownershift.se> The report and its content have also been highlighted in various media.
- Matthias Ritter, a member of the Centre for Entrepreneurship and Spatial Economics at JIBS, has co-authored the paper, Farm growth and land concentration (2022). Jana Plogmann, Oliver Mußhoff, Martin Odening, Matthias Ritter. Land Use Policy 11, April 2022, 106036, which is published in Land Use Policy.
- Ph.D. Candidate in Economics and CEnSE member Amedeus Malisa presented his Final Seminar entitled: “Pensions, Investment Behaviour and Financial Fraud Victimization” Amedeus Malisa held his final seminar for his thesis titled “Pensions, Investment Behaviour and Financial Fraud Victimization”. The discussant was Docent Anders Anderson from the Swedish House of Finance.

Save the date for the annual CEnSE Workshop:
9th to 11th
November
2022

---